

This is my commandment:

love one another,
as I have loved you.

A man can have no greater love than to lay down his life for his friends.

You are my friends,

if you do what I command you.

I shall not call you servants any more,
because a servant does not know
his master's business;

I call you friends,

because I have made known to you everything I have learned from my Father.
